1. Problem

What is the name of the R function for extracting the estimated coefficients from a fitted (generalized) linear model object?

Solution

coef is the R function for extracting the estimated coefficients from a fitted (generalized) linear model object. See ?coef for the corresponding manual page.